

South Street Postcards

From the collections of
Alf Harris and Ralph Cousins

November 2017

Havant Borough History Booklet No. 87

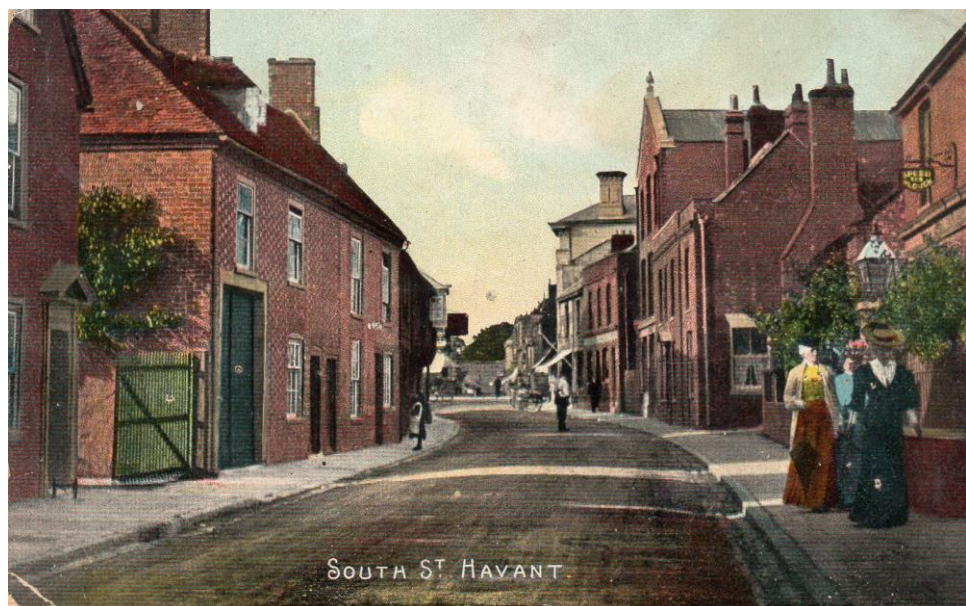

HNT 11

SOUTH STREET, HAVANT

A TUCK CARD

SOUTH STREET HAVANT

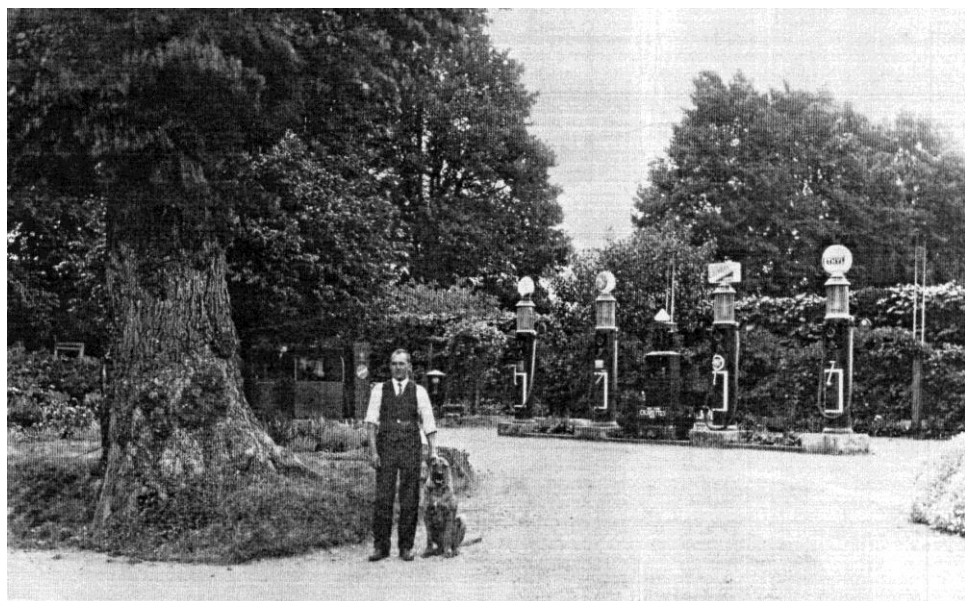

South Street, Havant.

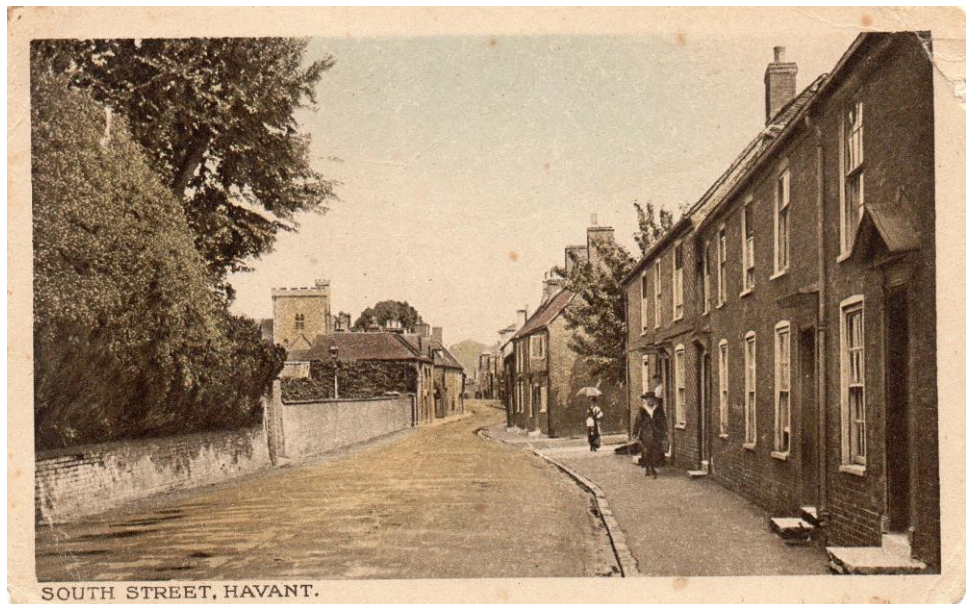

Bert Hatton – Les Arbres garage at bottom of South Street

SOUTH STREET, HAVANT.

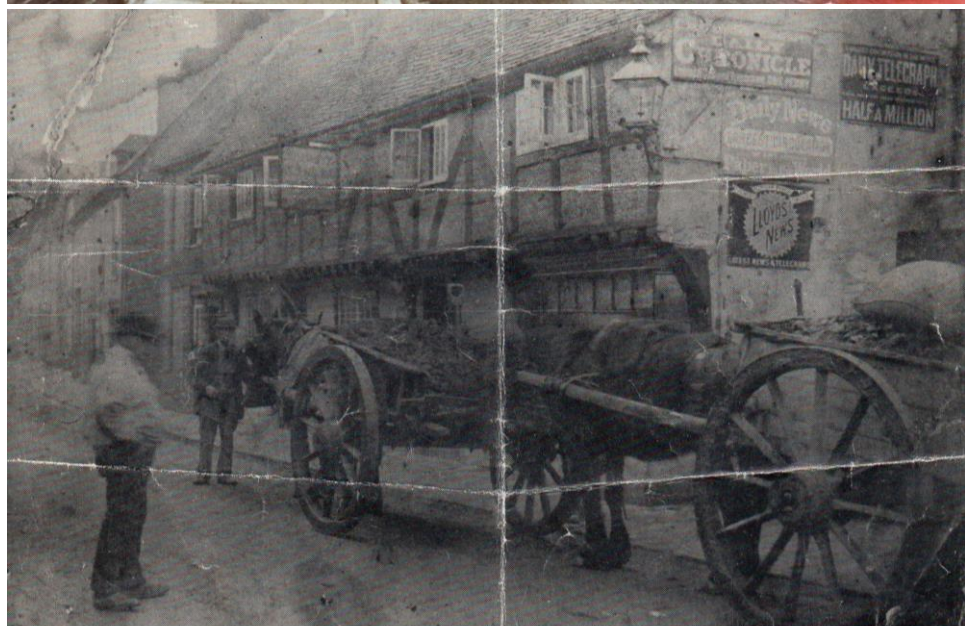

THE RECTORY HAVANT

This photograph was taken outside 'The Old House at Home' in South Street, Havant, about ninety years ago.

The man in the foreground is Henry North a hire carter and the carts in the photograph belonged to him. Henry North was well known in the area for refusing to use the Hayling Island toll bridge. He preferred to wait for low tide and then wade across.